Sales and Refunds Policy

Effective Date: 07-07-2026

Welcome to Aventra. This Sales and Refunds Policy explains how purchases, payments, cancellations, and refunds are handled when you use our website.

1. General

By purchasing any product or service from Aventra, you agree to this Sales and Refunds Policy along with our Terms of Use and Privacy Policy.

2. Products and Services

Aventra may offer digital products, subscriptions, software, or other online services. Product descriptions, pricing, and availability are subject to change without prior notice.

We reserve the right to refuse or cancel any order at our discretion, including in cases of pricing errors, suspected fraud, or technical issues.

3. Pricing

- All prices displayed on Aventra are listed in the applicable currency at checkout.
- Taxes, if applicable, will be added during the checkout process.
- Prices may change at any time without prior notice.

4. Payment

Payments must be completed through the payment methods supported on the website.

By submitting payment information, you confirm that you are authorised to use the selected payment method.

5. Digital Products

Unless otherwise stated, all purchases of digital products, downloadable content, software, or subscriptions are considered final once access has been granted.

6. Refund Eligibility

You may be eligible for a refund if:

- You were charged multiple times for the same purchase.
- You were charged incorrectly due to a billing error.
- You did not receive the purchased product or service because of a technical issue caused by Aventra.
- A refund is required by applicable law.

Refund requests must be submitted within 14 days of the purchase date.

7. Non-Refundable Items

Refunds will generally not be provided for:

- Change of mind after purchase.
- Failure to read product descriptions before purchasing.
- User error or accidental purchases.
- Digital products or services that have already been accessed, downloaded, or used, unless required by law.
- Subscription periods that have already been used.

8. Subscription Cancellations

If Aventra offers subscriptions:

- You may cancel your subscription at any time.
- Cancellation prevents future billing but does not automatically refund previous payments.
- Access to paid features continues until the end of the current billing period unless otherwise stated.

9. Processing Refunds

Approved refunds will be issued to the original payment method.

Please allow 5–10 business days for the refund to appear, depending on your payment provider or bank.

10. Chargebacks

If you believe there has been an unauthorised transaction, please contact us before initiating a chargeback. Fraudulent or abusive chargebacks may result in account suspension.
